

Hee-Dae KIM

Director General in Digital Transformation Agency, Daegu Technopark

Hee-Dae Kim is Ph.D. in Technology and Business Management at KAIST and Director General at Daegu Technopark Digital Transformation Agency (DXA). He is also Director of Korea Innovation Growth Engine Smart City Project (Citizen Participation Smart City Service Development). Many of his works are designing strategies for city development and planning for the city innovation platform including living-labs, the ecosystem of future industry, and the promotion program for SME & startups. He also activates chief secretariat at Daegu Creative Living Lab(D-Lab) which is a member of European Network of Living Labs (ENoLL).

His research fields are digital based innovation systems from business to national level and from industrial to social innovation, smart city, smart communication platform based on citizen participation, social network technology, digital transformation, complexity, network society, design thinking, living labs, datanomics, marketing strategies for computer technologies, etc. He has published papers Scientometrics, Asia Pacific Journal of Information Systems, Information System Review, and others.

He has served as a reviewer for several journals. He got honors three times for his works related metropolitan innovation systems from the Secretary of Minster of Knowledge Economy and the Mayor of Daegu city.