

H.E. Mr Teodoro WILLINK

Vice -Minister, Telecommunications Ministry of Science, Technology and Telecommunications (MICITT), Costa Rica

Teodoro Willink Castro holds a Master's Degree in Electrical Engineering with an emphasis in Telecommunications Networks from the University of Twente, the Netherlands, a Bachelor's Degree in Electrical Engineering with an emphasis in Communications Systems from the University of Costa Rica and a Bachelor's Degree in Electrical Engineering with an emphasis in Electronics and Telecommunications from the University of Costa Rica. In addition, at the School of Electrical Engineering of the University of Costa Rica, he served as Director of the Department of Electronics and Telecommunications, coordinator of the Telecommunications Laboratory, professor of baccalaureate, undergraduate and master's courses on electronics and telecommunications, coordinator of the project of Multiversa Spaces teaching, collaborator of the Tropicalization of technology communal work project, coordinator of the ElectrizarTE cultural extension project, director of final projects for undergraduate graduation and interim professor of high school courses. In addition, he was the Coordinator of the Osa-Golfo Dulce PiOsa Institutional Program of the Vice-rectory of Social Action, University of Costa Rica.